

Agenda Dutch GO Day

Demand side renewable markets and the Dutch market for Guarantees of Origin

November 14, 2018 | 's-Hertogenbosch | the Netherlands

CertiQ and RECS International are jointly organizing a one-day seminar to promote the use and understanding of the Guarantee of Origin in the Netherlands. The event will focus on the development of GO markets in the Netherlands as well as within Europe at large. European and national legislation will be reviewed, particularly a detailed account on disclosure regulations.

This will be an English language seminar.

Agenda

09:00 – 10:00 Welcome coffee in Bistro

10:00 – 10:15 Opening welcome – *Hans Verhoeven, Essent

10:15 – 11:15 Introduction to GO Days

Introducing energy attribute certificate (EAC) markets, importance of standardizing EAC markets, consumer choice/reporting standards/RE100/GHGP. Consumption mix and dual reporting.

Jared Braslawsky, RECS International

The role of the AIB in standardizing the GO systems, and the current status of European GO systems. A focus on the influence of European Directives (RED and RED II).

Dirk van Evercooren, Association of Issuing Bodies

11:15 – 12:00 How does the GO market function?

Examples of project development in a well functioning GO market, the importance of the GO in consumer choice, analyzing the influence of consumption on production.

Roland Kok, Essent

A view on the European GO market: volumes and prices, contracts and procurement strategies of large buyers.

Martijn Kerkhof, ACT

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch

13:00 – 13:45 Disclosure in the Netherlands

Understanding disclosure, disclosure models in Europe as well as the current Dutch disclosure model, methods for voluntary full disclosure. What are the implications of full disclosure? What role does the Dutch Authority for Consumers and Markets (ACM) play? The role of the Dutch Issuing Body (CertiQ), digitalization developments, blockchain.

Cora Zonderland, ACM

Max Laven and Ivo de Vries, CertiQ

13:45 – 14:30 Panel-discussion

Improvement of GO systems, critique on GO system, blockchain developments in GO markets.

Panel Participants:

Lian Krijger, CertiQ

Martijn Kerkhof, ACT Commodities

Roland Kok, innogy

Kjell Rege, Nvalue

More to be announced...

14:30 – 14:45 Wrapping up

Focusing on the role and position of consumers in the electricity market. A change in vision for the future and the electricity market and providing reliable tools for his to happen. What is the role of market players, governments, non-profits and consumers themselves?

Lian Krijger, CertiQ

Jared Braslawsky, RECS International

14:45 Closing

Hans Verhoeven, Essent

15:00 Drinks and coffee in Bistro

Wednesday 14 November
10:00 – 15:00

Essent Building
Willemsplein 4
's-Hertogenbosch

Free for RECS International members
€20,- for non-members

To register, follow this link

If you plan to come by car: please know that it is not possible to park at the Essent building. There are parking spaces available at Qpark parking station, entrance Maijweg.