

General meeting and OMC

28 and 29 November 2019

Luxembourg (city)

Introduction

On 28 November 2019 the Association of Issuing Bodies (AIB) and RECS International are jointly organizing the Open Markets Committee (OMC). On 29 November 2019 RECS International will be organizing the RECS General Meeting. Both meetings will be held in Luxembourg.

The OMC offers the members of the AIB and RECS International the opportunity to discuss issues regarding the developments and use of the Guarantee of Origin system. Following the OMC there will be a joint dinner for which reservation is required.

The RECS International General Meeting is open to members of RECS International (non-members may participate on personal request) and will provide a brief summary of the activities and other updates regarding the organisation. Following the RECS General Meeting there is a buffet lunch at the meeting venue, for which registration is required.

Registration

Registration for the General Meeting and the OMC is possible via the RECS International website here. Registration is possible for all or part(s) of the event. Please also register here for the Error! Reference source not found.visit to the hydro power plant.

Meeting fee

Cost for the General Meeting is €135,- for members. This covers the cost for the OMC and the dinner on 28/11/2019 and the General Meeting and lunch on 29/11/2019. In case of attending only part of the meeting the same fee applies. Accommodation and travel are not included. The meeting fee will not be waived for attendance to only a portion of the meetings. An Invoice will be sent after the meeting.
